

Prior Learning Assessment Criteria

2017-2018

COLLEGE & CAREER PATHWAYS

1. Student has successfully completed a minimum of 6 hours of ACC course work and is currently enrolled after the census date of the requesting semester.
2. PLA credit will only be awarded as it applies to a current ACC program of study.
3. Students must pay all fees associated with the review and/or assessment. Fees associated with PLA credit are waived for veterans with honorable or general conditions discharge.
4. There is no charge for transcript of AP/CLEP/IBD/DSST or Military PLA credit. There is a $50 per credit hour charge for all other PLA credit review.
5. PLA is noted with a grade of "S" for the semester hour value and is not calculated in the institution's grade point average (GPA). Credit by Departmental Exam will be noted with a grade of A, B, or C.
6. A maximum of 24 hours can be awarded for prior learning. These hours will not be counted toward resident credit with the exception of ACC Continuing Education mirror classes.
7. Award of PLA at ACC does not guarantee transfer of such credit to other colleges and universities.
