

Food for Change

Apply Today!

The Food for Change initiative at Alvin Community College strives to provide food scholarships for students as a motivation to complete degree and/or certificate programs. Food scholarship recipients will receive a voucher they can redeem for groceries during visits twice each month to the campus food market. A typical food distribution includes up to 60 pounds of healthy food, half of it being produce.

Eligibility Requirements

- Completion of the current academic year Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) with an estimated family contribution (EFC) of zero
- Be in good academic and disciplinary standing
- Maintain a minimum 2.0 cumulative grade point average
- Maintain enrollment in a minimum of 6 credit hours

Pick up an application in Admissions, A-100 or email food@alvincollege.edu for more information.
