MUSIC

A.A. DEGREE

ACC
ALVIN COMMUNITY COLLEGE

Pursue your Passion

Do you sing, play an instrument, write songs, or just love music? Do you dream of directing a band or choir, or being a music teacher? Then come to ACC to pursue your passion.

The ACC music department faculty are professionally active musicians and educators who care for student musicians as individuals. Our small class size provides more personalized instruction and enables students to strive for excellence as they prepare to transfer to a four-year university.

Career Opportunities

Many opportunities are available for musicians such as:

- Music Performance - classical, pop, musical theater, jazz, church music
- Music Education - choir director, band director, elementary music teacher, private lessons teacher
- Music Composition - singer songwriter, writing for ensembles, radio/television/film composing
- Music Business - recording studio, music production, retail, instrument repair, marketing
- Health Professional - music therapy

The Department of Music also welcomes students of any major who want to take private lessons, participate in the choirs and bands, or to take music courses to supplement the Core curriculum.

Community members are also a vital part of the music department's and the college's mission and are encouraged to participate in ensembles or to take private lessons.

What Will I Study?

The Music Program offers fully transferable courses for music majors and non-majors alike including:

- Private lessons - voice or instrument
- Music Theory
- Ear Training & Sight Singing
- Ensembles - Concert Choir, Concert Band, Chamber Singers, Jazz Band, guitar, percussion
- Music Literature
